

Finzi International Composing Competition

Supported by the Boltini Trust

Registered charity No. 1123129

TERMS & CONDITIONS:

1. The final deadline for entries is 30th June 2023, 12pm UK time
2. To be considered by the judges, entries must comply with the application criteria and be accompanied by the application fee of £25.
3. Trinity College choir will record the winning piece in February 2024. There will subsequently be a live performance, and the opportunity for repeat performances should the choir decide.
4. This recording will be made available and shared via the Trinity College and Finzi Trust websites and social media.
5. The winning entrant grants the Finzi Trust the right in perpetuity to:
 - Perform the work at Trust-related events
 - Share the Choir of Trinity College recording online, both audio and video, whether as clips or in its entirety

Beyond this you are free to have the piece published and performed as you wish.
6. Boosey and Hawkes, Gerald Finzi's publisher, will consider the winning entry for possible publication. Publication is not guaranteed.
7. Feedback on entries will only be available to the final shortlisted candidates.
8. The decision of the judges is final.